

Jewish Times

By Isaiah and Isikiel (Printed in Tel Aviv, Every Day)

- I. The Prophet and his Encounter with the Pope all its Planning and Scheduling

The Prophet, Shomit Sirohi is busy packing his bags and is even antagonistic about the planned meeting. He is listening to his lover's music and even planning a legal document to be followed in steps -

- I. Prepare the documents (including meeting on German Idealism account)
- II. Prepare the packing
- III. Prepare the plane ticket.

- II. Predictions on which Phase of Life - Youth, College, Politics, Revolution and Paulinian Life

The process of life explains that the Prophet is always about changing his life.

- III. Biblical References - Christian Life

Christian life changes a lot, and finally the Christ is busy in his simple form of life - then he directs a plan to meet which then is a legal judgement and is also forced - it is forced by the law.

Prior to this it was forced by listening to others, or was forced by philosophical means or political means. The difference is the law - the law is the law, other things are not law, but erudition and latterly life following poetic invitations.

When poetry is law, it is law.